SAR President's Roundtable Meeting Presided by Soror Marjon Ford, Interim SC State Coordinator West <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The President's roundtable opened with meditation by Soror Alice Jones of Greenwood Alumnae Chapter. 1st Timothy 3:2-3. Leaders must lead with integrity, correct with grace, build with love, don't be self-serving but driven, don't be loud but powerful and if you lead in this manner, Delta is satisfied. ■ Soror Lewis shared that this is a season of renewal and reflection. Best practices were shared by Suffolk Alumnae on their relationship with an attorney office that sponsored a billboard for them sharing their scholarship fundraiser activity. Winston-Salem Alumnae shared information about their trip to Ghana. It took two years to plan. They established a computer and sewing lab for the Monty School. ■ Reviewed the importance of completing the demographic sheet with our chapter data. She uses the data to report regional data that is required of the RD. To update your report, find your acknowledgement email. If you cannot locate the email contact Soror Harris. ■ Make sure your chapter is working on compliance information. Don't wait until the last minute. ■ Membership Intake: 27 Collegiate and 13 Alumnae

Soror Chelsea King received the 2025-26 Smith Shaver Scholars Award from NCCU's Law School, receiving one of four awards given. The Scholarship Fund was created pursuant to the order of Judge Howard E. Manning, Jr., in the class action SMITH vs. STATE of NC/ SHAVER vs. STATE of NC.

Sisterhood Committee:

Church Service:

- Sorors are invited to New Red Mountain Missionary Baptist Church, 1401 Red Mountain Rd, Rougemont, NC; at the 11:00 am service on March 1, 2026. Sorors should arrive at the church by 10:45am. The attire is white with pearls and violets.
- Donations for the scholarship funds should be submitted to the finance team not later than the February 23rd chapter meeting.

Chapter Fellowship:

- Sorors are invited to attend Tru Soul Food Kitchen in Creedmoor, NC on March 1, 2026, at 2:00pm. President Bradsher had secured the food for the Christmas Celebration, so we will be able to utilize this as a sisterhood month dinner celebration.
- Sorors can attend either the church service, dinner celebration, or both.

Sisterhood Paint Activity:

- Sisterhood Paint Activity will take place on March 14, 2026, at PCC S100 at 11:00 am.
- Kayla Owens is not bonded or insured, so President Bradsher will be working on securing insurance for the event.
- Kayla Owens is only charging $10 per canvas, and the size will be 8 ½x10, so the $25 will cover this charge.
- Each Sorors final payment of $25.00 can be paid at the February 23rd chapter meeting to cover the cost of food and paint materials.
- Sorors attending the chapter meeting can bring payments for non-financial members who wish to attend this event.
- Sorors who cannot attend the chapter meeting and nonfinancial members can mail in their payment to the Roxboro Alumnae PO Box no later than March 2nd.

Sign Up Sheets will be available for all events at the February 23rd Chapter Meeting

May Week:

May Week activities will occur May 10 – 16, 2026. Thursday, May 14, is the date for our awards ceremony. The venue again this year is the Person County Senior Center Social Hall. The committee has started compiling a list of Sorors who have received awards, promotions, or graduated from graduate school since last May. If you wish to be recognized at this event, please submit your information to the committee by May 9, 2026.

Retreat Committee:

The Retreat Committee will meet to review and discuss the retreat details. The retreat is scheduled for August 22, 2026. PCC has been identified as the location for the Retreat if another location can't be obtained. During the retreat, we will hold two to three DID training sessions. Sorors will submit their $30.00 payment to cover breakfast and lunch by June 22, 2026. President Bradsher will also provide the survey results from the 2025 Retreat for the committee's review.

45th Chapter Anniversary:

It is with great pride and humble gratitude that Roxboro Alumnae Chapter approaches a significant milestone: our 45th Anniversary. Our chapter has proudly upheld the values of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc through countless initiatives in scholarship, service, sisterhood and social action. We would like to celebrate this milestone. Requesting approval to proceed with the planning of this event. Several Sorors have agreed to be a part of the committee if approved.

Actions to be taken by the Executive Committee or presented to the Executive Board for consideration at the next Chapter Meeting
