SAR President's Roundtable Meeting Presided by NC Coordinator East- Soror Barbara Smith <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The President's roundtable opened with meditation by Soror Shellena Atlas of the Raleigh Alumnae Chapter. ■ Soror Lewis shared her greetings. She provided an update that she has discussed with the Deputy Director Soror Scott about access (Red Zone) for chapter presidents and vice presidents. A special registration notification will go out to chapter presidents for the regional conference. There will be 3 registrations. She indicated that it is not an issue if the outgoing president utilizes one, followed by the delegate and alternate delegate. She welcomed and thanked the VP's for being on the call. She thanked those who joined the State of the Region webinar. ■ Soror Sharon Parker shared information about Awards and Recognitions coming up at the Regional Conference. The deadline is April 1st at 11:59pm. Example of awards: Chapter of the Year, Delta Dear of the Year, Alumnae and Collegiate Soror of the Year, Advisor of the Year, etc. Encouraged chapters to apply. There are Membership Services, PP&D, Social Action awards as well. The 22 points of Light for Alumnae and 13 points of Light for Collegiate chapters award is also available and a Community Impact Award. ■ Soror Tracy Richardson Regional Coordinator for Social Action. Encouraged chapters to submit their applications for awards. Awards must be approved by the Social Action Commission. Information in your application should indicate the impact, who your partners are, etc. You can submit pictures (action shots) and videos. Legacy Awards: Cheryl Hickmon for Collegiates; Shirley Chisholm and Dorothy Height for Alumnae.

- Soror Sharon Parish- Regional Chair of PP&D. Shared information about the chapter demographics report, list all of your activities, date/time, program titles, programmatic thrust, strategic pillar, after event evaluation, number of attendees, social media and was the program impactful. Make sure you provide a good robust description of the activity. She reviewed the difference between a program, project, event and initiative. A webinar is available on the National website. Deadline April 1st.
- Aquaris Anderson- National Finance Committee- Red Zone is up and ready for dues. Office hours are forthcoming. AFR due Feb. 28th. AFR webinars will hopefully be posted soon. All chapters should be operating in their 2026 budgets.
